

Number 6 shows up at Private I's office with a mystery to solve. Word on the street is that 7 ate 9! And now 6 is scared that they may be next. Private I has a big mystery to solve & things are just not adding up.

With a little help, Humpty Dumpty survived a terrible fall off the wall. But just like most people would be, he was scared to get back up again. Humpty Dumpty has to overcome his fears to get back to doing what he loves most, watching and being close to the birds.

This is the story of a little boy & his family driving into the city of Havana for a celebration. The author uses onomatopoeia to help make the story an event of the sights and sounds of historic Cuba.

Baabwaa and Wooliam live a nice, quiet life. This all changes when they decide to go on an adventure and find a third sheep. Is he really a sheep at all? Wooliam recognizes their new friend from his books, and the pair decide to befriend the newcomer.

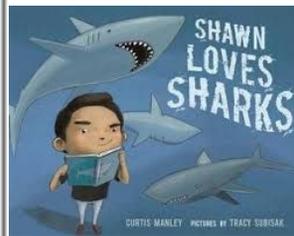

Louie is a dog who was living a perfectly perfect life until... they started to appear. Although they were only small annoyances, these changes made Louie feel uncomfortable. Then Louie's mom's stomach started getting bigger. What will happen to poor Louie?

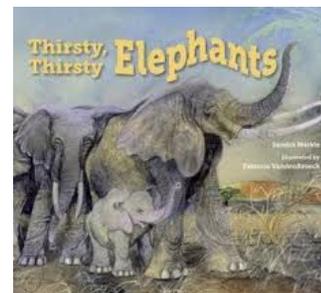

In 1962, a stray dog was found under a pile of boxes in a Coast Guard warehouse on what used to be called Government Island, the Coast Guard Base in San Francisco Bay, when a seaman named Dave Bunch was mopping the floor. It was love at first sight.

Shawn loves sharks! He loves to read about sharks and act like a shark. When his teacher assigns each student in class an animal to research, he excitedly calls out that he "gets the shark!" Unfortunately, he is assigned the leopard seal while Stacy gets his favorite animal.

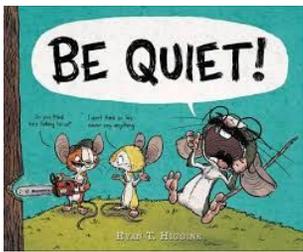

During a drought in Tanzania, Grandma Elephant leads her family and herd in a search for water based on her memories of past watering holes.

South Carolina 2019-2020 Picture Book Award Nominees

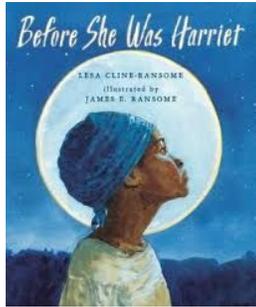

All media specialists should review all titles and add them to their collection only if the titles meet the criteria established by District Board Policy and Library Media Center Policy & Procedure guidelines. We recommend that others interested in purchasing these titles read reviews and scan materials to determine the appropriateness for their intended readers.

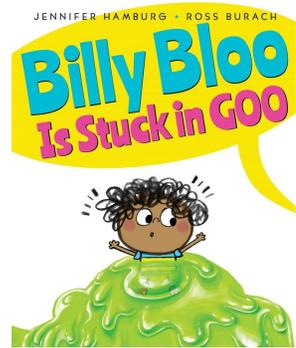

Rupert the mouse always has big plans. In this story, he is on a mission to create his own wordless picture book. However, he also has two very talkative friends who just won't stop talking!

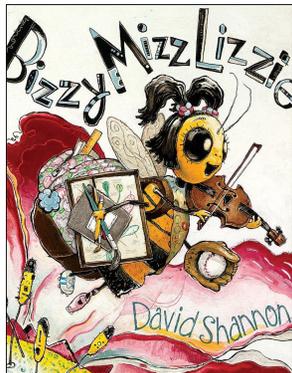

This is a book that takes you on a journey through the life of Harriet Tubman. Told in reverse order, it starts with her life as an older Harriet, being a suffragist and standing up against injustice. Harriet's life is described in many ways, including Union spy, nurse, Aunt, Moses, Minty, and Arminta.

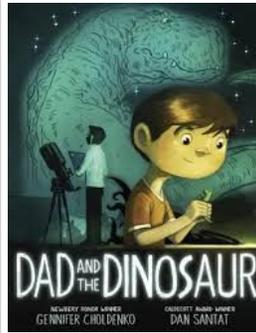

This charming rhyming book tells the story of Billy, who needs to be rescued from an enormous pile of green goo. There are all sorts of people who come to his rescue, only to be trapped themselves. The illustrations are hilarious and include witty quips as the story unfolds.

Lizzie, the busiest bee in Hivetown, tries to do everything and succeed, because she wants to meet the Queen Bee. She's so over-scheduled that she winds up going to sleep during the school spelling bee and misses out on her big chance.

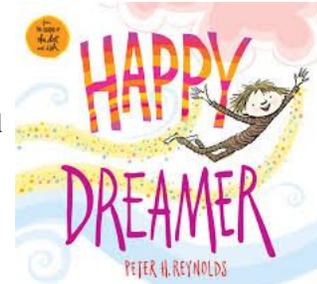

Jasper Rabbit is super excited! He has grown up so much that he can now pick out his own underwear. He and his mom go shopping, and Jasper picks out the coolest underwear, "Creepy Underwear." Jasper can't wait to wear his new underwear!

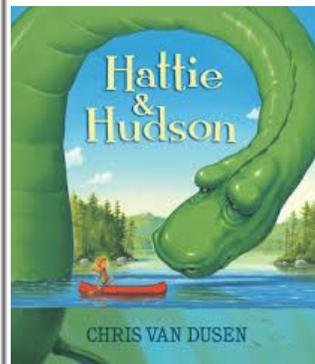

Nicholas wishes he could be brave just like his dad, but he needs help from his toy dinosaur. Carrying a toy dinosaur in his pocket helps him face his many fears. One day, the dinosaur goes missing. Nicholas and Dad set out to search for the lost dinosaur to regain Nicholas's bravery.

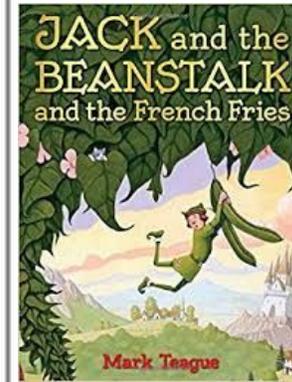

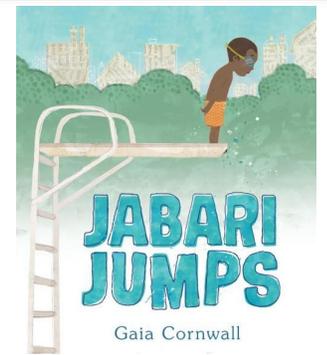

Peter Reynolds delves into all the reasons why being a dreamer is freeing for the mind and spirit. The main character demonstrates resilience, a critical life skill for students to acquire.

Hattie McFadden is a born explorer. Every morning she grabs her life jacket and paddles out in her canoe to discover something new on the lake. When her singing calls up a huge mysterious beast from the depths, everyone in town is terrified — except Hattie.

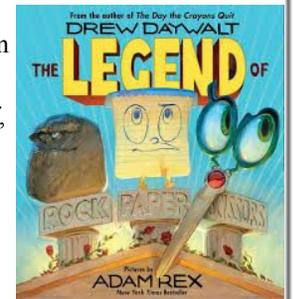

Jabari has finished his swimming classes. He is an excellent swimmer, but now he plans to master another aquatic feat, jumping off the high dive at the pool. Does he make the leap or does he wait?

When Jack trades the family cow for a handful of magic beans, he gets more than he wants. A massive crop of beans grows, causing Jack to eat bean porridge for breakfast, bean salad for lunch, and bean chowder for dinner! Then he meets a grumpy giant, who is just as sick and tired of beans as he is.

A stone-faced warrior named Rock searches for a worthy opponent, battling a clothespin and an apricot. Meanwhile Paper, on his home office turf, fights with a printer and a bag of snacks. While that is going on, Scissors duels with tape and chicken nuggets in her search for an even match. What will happen when they take on each other?

Noticing the limitations that surround her in segregated Birmingham, Alabama, a young girl attends a meeting in which she hears Dr. King urge his followers to march. She and her brother decide that they should march instead of their parents.

